NEWS LETTER FROM STATE DEPARTMENTS

COLUMBUS—Secretary of State, Clarence J. Brown, by virtue of his office, chief election officer of the state has certified to the various boards of election in the eighty-eight counties of the state the form to be used in making up the official ballots for the election on November 8th. Upon this ballot will appear in six vertical and parallel columns the candidates of the Democratic and Republican parties, the Socialist, Socialist-Labor, Prohibition and Communist groups, in the above named order reading from left to right. Upon the ballots this year will appear the names of presidential and vice-presidential candidates, at the head of their particular tickets. The names of the electors of the various parties and groups are on file in the office of the Secretary of State and will not appear on the ballot as in 1928. Only the Democratic and Republican ballots may, by virtue of an opinion of the Attorney General, bear the emblem of the party and have a circle thereunder enabling the voter to, with a single-cross mark, cast his ballot for a whole ticket.

The Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster under the management of Director of Public Welfare, John McSweeney and Superintendent, A. R. Harsh, has been a busy institution the past few weeks even though it is the period of summer vacation. The 965 inmates have been kept busy gathering 2,161 bushels of apples, 5,042 lbs. of grapes and 114 bushels of potatoes, besides cherries, pears, peaches, etc., and the storeroom is filled to overflowing. Plenty of fruit has been canned and laid away for winter consumption. The band of 80 members continues giving daily concerts on the campus.

The county fair season is fast drawing to a close only four being held this week, the Butler County fair at Hamilton, Guernsey County at Old Washington, Morrow at Mt. Pleasant, and Wayne at Wooster. Four independent fairs are being held the same week, Attica Barlow, Randolph and Somerset. Fairs this year have been holding their own with good attendance records, due in a measure to the reduced admissions.

At the present time there are 219 inmates at the Ohio State Brick plant at Junction City and of that number about one-half are experienced baseball players and the other half are ardent rovers and fans. Several teams have been organized and both soft and hard ball are played. On Sunday afternoons an outside team is brought to the grounds and the grand stand is usually filled to overflowing with spectators from the surrounding community while the inmates enjoy the game from bleachers erected just outside the playing field. The prison team has won over 80 per cent of games played with outside teams this season.

Thomas E. Bateman, Clerk of the Senate, shouldered his trusty fowling piece several days this week and demonstrated his ability as the champion shot of Pike County, bringing in the full quota of squirrels allowed under the fish and game conservation laws. As a consequence, a number of Clerk Bateman's friends and neighbors have been enjoying savory meals of squirrel pot-pie during the hunting season.

Governor's Promise Has Not Been Kept

The manner in which the State Highway department has handled the letting of the Route 42 resurfacing contract is hardly in line with the promises made by Gov. White two years ago and smacks much of "a la Cooper." The local stone company was low bidder and the stone passed the state test and on this grounds the resurfacing company made its bid. By a singular turn the local company next discovered another company furnishing stone and hauling it twenty miles, wearing out other good roads. The people here were mindful of the acts of the Cooper administration on election day two years ago and it seems the only remedy to get a square deal is for the continued defeat of all administrations that do not play fair. In this way the thousands of motorists that pay the bill in gasoline tax may eventually or accidentally get a man in the highway department that will be able to give all contractors a square deal. With unemployment just as marked here as other places the administration fails to keep its promise to the people.

Probate Judge S. C. Wright and wife spent the week-end with Dr. and Mrs. James Chesnut in Richmond, Ind.

COURT NEWS

DENIES STATE CHARGES
The International Corporation of Bogardus, Cox, Edwards and Springer heirs, Osborn, issued a general denial to charges contained in an injunction suit filed in Common Pleas Court by the Attorney General office for Theodore Tangeman, State Commerce Director, in an answer filed by Francis Hoover and Dudley M. The answer sets forth that it answered the order August 22, that it is a corporation not for profit, that it issues no securities, but has established an invitation fee of $50 that it has no earnings and pays out no money except for investigators, and that no one has been authorized to represent that ownership of a membership will result in profit to the owner, the corporation or members.

COLLEGE NEWS

Last Friday evening Cedarville College lost a hard fought football game to Ashland College. In spite of the fact that Ashland's line averaged 190 lbs. while Cedarville averaged about 165 the smaller team proved that they could play on equal terms with their opponents.

During the first half of the game Cedarville was inclined to be a trifle slow and lack fight. Just before the third quarter was over they seemed to waken up and played like a different team. In the last half there was no scoring done although Cedarville gained consistently through Ashland's second team which came into the game for the last four minutes to play.

Score by Quarters
1st	2nd	3rd	4th

She studied violin for fourteen years with Becker, of Chicago. Her ensemble work was done with George Dasch, Director of Chicago's Little Symphony. Miss Robinson was the principal viola player in the Columbia Symphony Orchestra. She was also violinist with the symphony orchestra in the Auditorium Theatre, Chicago, playing, with Bruch, Concerto in A Minor. She made her debut as a concert violinist under the management of J. B. Hall, of Chicago. She has the very best of recommendations from the Chicago papers such as the Herald and Examiner, Evening Post, Musical Courier, Daily Journal, and the Music News. She also has like press notices from the Cincinnati Post Enquirer, Times-Star, and Musical Leader, and additional recommendations from leading musicians both in Cincinnati and Chicago. Miss Robinson has given public recitals also before the Cincinnati Business Women's Club and in the Y. W. C. A. Auditorium in Cincinnati. Remember she appears in the college chapel this morning at 11:30. All who are interested in violin work will do well to confer with her.

Two new students came in at the close of last week. They are Miss Mildred Bisdorf of Cincinnati and Mr. Attilio Cappola of Lowellville. This is Freshmen Week. We note that Mr. Marion Hostetler of the class of '32 has been elected as pianist in the chapel services of Western Theological Seminary. This is a signal honor and a responsible position which rarely comes to a Junior in the Seminary. We all know that Marion has the talent and will render splendid service. He is showing his usual splendid progress in his studies. He has been especially complimented for his work in Greek.

LEGISLATURE IS IN SESSION TO REDUCE SALARIES

For the third time this year the Legislature is in special session at Columbus, this time being called by Governor White to reduce state and county salaries of public officials.

Two special committees have been at work investigating and ready to make report on reductions. One plan calls for a saving of $1,500,000 a year by taking a five per cent deduction from the first $1000 of salary, 10 per cent from the next $4000 and 15 per cent from all over that.

Another measure changes the percentages and estimates a total saving of $1,750,000 by hitting the higher salaries for a larger reduction. The plan is to make the reduction effective for only two years.

Other legislation proposed is to enable building and loan associations to invest in the stock of Home Loan banks.

To provide for housing corporations which may proceed with slum elimination and other housing projects, to be financed in part with federal funds.

To authorize the payment of taxes in installments and to separate general and special assessment taxes.

To provide for repayment from gasoline funds of a part of unpaid highway assessments against abutting property owners.

The plan of reducing public salaries which has provoked much feeling and a determined effort will be made to check the cuts as much as possible. President Rightmire, Ohio State University, who gets $13,500 annually, beside residence, heat, light, etc., is on the ground opposing a plan to do away with the lump-sum appropriation. At present the University trustees set the salary out of the lump-sum. It has also been charged that certain state officials have within the past months increased salaries of clerks and deputies, to be ready for the cut that is to be made by the legislature.

Senator Robert Taft, who is the author of the classification tax law is opposing a cut in salaries of boards of elections and precinct election officers. He has included in the program and one certain interests are trying to keep out, is the $20 a day allowance to all Common Pleas judges, when hearing cases out of their respective county. The state pays a salary of $300, to each common pleas judge and the county salary is based on population. The law creating the $20 a day and all expenses, irrespective of the regular salary, was passed four years ago.

WORLD WAR VETERANS ON THE BLOCK

There seems to be a systematic campaign fully mapped out by certain big financial interests and the present national administration to place the Veterans of the World War in a false light before the public. There is in New York an organization that is headed by prominent Republicans that is demanding the reduction of the compensation or other financial aid the government has been giving the veterans. Now comes another attack on the Spanish War veterans that their allowance should be reduced. We may expect to see this followed by a demand to relieve the few remaining Grand Army veterans in their declining days of their pensions.

No doubt this all comes about as a result of the demand of the thousands of unemployed World Veterans for their bonus, that they will not become object of charity in every sense of the word. Politics has had much to do with the situation the veterans find themselves in today. As long as the leadership leans a certain way, and the membership followed, all was "jake" using a slang expression, this upset plans of the politicians and now we find the politicians turning their guns on the boys that risked their lives in the trenches that the politicians of both political parties could remain at home and reap the big money the war brought the United States.

While we sympathize with the veterans in their demand we have repeatedly stated that there was no chance whatever of this country paying the bonus. The international bankers with the backing of the Hoover administration have loaned our once foreign foe, as well as our war allied nations, to a point where the credit of the nation was impaired. After it was too late President Hoover, who, as recently stated by the New York Tribune, to the seriousness of the situation, and then came the demand for balancing the budget, which had not been balanced from the first year of the Hoover administration. The financial crisis simply has made it impossible for a bonus payment at this time. The insistent harping of the administration about the bonus and prohibition is nothing more than a smoke screen to keep the public mind off what the administration has been doing for foreign countries, some of which have been using their loans to pay pensions to their veterans. These countries are taking advantage of a moratorium and not repaying this nation the loans, and cancellation of the war debts only adds to the gravity of the situation.

We doubt very much whether the veterans would ask for the bonus were it not for the fact that hundred million dollar corporations, banks and other enterprises have been voted huge loans, most of which will never be repaid to the government. It is this feature that bothers business interests and no doubt caused Senator Fess in an address to make the statement that a general sales tax on everything would likely be the next step when congress meets in December. Instead of coming out of the depression every step seems to be deeper into it for this nation.

From the party standpoint we have never been able to just quite figure out the Republican viewpoint towards the veterans. We are evidently living in an age of one day to another without considering the future or taking stock of what history has recorded in the past. Following the Civil War the Democratic party took issue with the Republicans over the pensions granted Civil War veterans. Public sentiment backed the Grand Army. It was not many years until the sons of these Civil War veterans were voters. As years went on the grand children were voters and probably seventy-five per cent of sons and grandsons followed their elders in the Republican party, which continued to grow in numbers and party strength, to guarantee years of party success at the polls.

Now the sons of many veterans of the World War are coming to their majority, only to be followed later on with grandsons. With the Republican party following the Wall Street International bank crowd and a campaign to discredit the veterans of the last war, where is the party to land in future years? There are far more veterans of the World War than there were of the Civil War and there is no doubt of the power and influence these veterans, their sons and grandsons will have in the coming years and it will be great enough to make or break any political party that exists today or may be born in the future.

That certain abuses exist among veterans, as to so-called aid or pensions granted, we do not doubt. In fact we know of some but it has been only within the past two years that these abuses have become numerous. For the Hoover administration to condemn veterans for something that has gone on under the administration and which it is directly responsible for, does not call for much criticism on the part of the administration supporters. The thousands of veterans on the federal pay roll in positions paying princely salaries, and at the same time drawing compensation, is enough to make any veteran who has no compensation, nor a job to enable him to support his family or himself, a bit out of order with the administration. The present campaign to disgrace the veterans will fail and those who have a part in it will just as surely pass into private life as the years come and go and the veteran families expand to voting age.

IT MAY BE EMBARRASSING TO SOME

Four years ago President Hoover left a bit of sop for both wets and dries in his "noble experiment" speech, more for the encouragement of the former than the latter. He later named the Wickersham Commission, all wet but two. Their report was too broad and might prove offensive to the dries and he ordered the Commission to tone it down. He provided police protection that imported liquor could be safely transported over Washington streets to foreign legations for the entertainment and pleasure of official Washington at state and social affairs. The President ordered the Army out to shoot down the bonus army but has anyone ever heard of him ordering the army out to enforce prohibition or against Chicago racketeering? The President has no vote on prohibition but Senators do and Ohio prohibitionists worry about presidential candidates and let one of two wets go to the Senate. Homes, farms, business, bread and butter seem to be in the background with too many over zealous persons about something we already have and is not to be taken out of the constitution by either side—for nothing yet ever placed in the constitution has been taken out.

If prohibition is such an important factor in this election what has become of Bishop Cannon, that campaigned for Hoover four years ago and turned part of the solid south to Hoover? What has become of Senator Fess and his famous prohibition exhortations? Where are all the other Anti Saloon League campaigners that were so active four years ago?

There is no one pointing "with pride" to the Hoover administration on the prohibition issue other than those interested in staying on the federal pay roll. With eleven million people out of employment and homes and farms at stake certainly we are being led up a blind alley by the "bugaboo" of prohibition, which we now have, but not enforced by the federal government owing to wet sympathizers in public office at the good grace of the President and his political associates. His own cabinet contains one outstanding dry. Let's have a little more common sense view of the situation and consider the more important phases of the campaign that confidence in business can be restored and men provided employment to support themselves and their families. Otherwise we have not seen the worst and the nation's business executives are taking that viewpoint. There are many thousands of prohibition supporters that are honest in their stand in defense of their ideals but they are often misled for political purpose that certain candidates on the public pay roll are more necessary to the welfare of the county, state or nation, than bread and butter for men, women and children.

The prohibition repeal-resubmission controversy has brought out many a good jest but the following from the Pathfinder for Sept. 17 brings the issue home in a good natured way:

"MORE NOBLE EXPERIMENT"

"We gather from Republican and Democratic speech that 'prohibition is doomed,' yet on the other hand 'the old saloon' is not to return. Drinking spurious liquors is to be lifted to a higher social and moral plane. Under government and state supervision the new era liquor dispensaries are to be places where one will not be afraid or ashamed to take one's own mother-in-law for an afternoon or evening of innocent fun. Everything will be done to eliminate the evils of the old saloon and patrons will glide in and out of the new fangled thirst parlors with a feeling of righteousness only exceeded by a trip up one of Billy Sunday's sawdust trails.

"That is the picture the wet candidates have painted for the dries, but the dries would like more information before Nov. 8. They would like to know just what is to replace the old saloon, what it will be called; how the alcoholic beverages will be dispensed—and in what measure to individual imbibers. Will President Hoover and Governor Roosevelt give them the details of this bigger and better 'noble experiment' before election or will the dries choose to vote for what seems to be the lesser of two evil wet plans? Even the wets are curious to know how, when and where the legalized refreshments will be served. In place of the bar with its brass rails and sawdust and convenient cuspidors will they find dainty green and yellow tea tables and chairs? Instead of the corpulent redfaced bartender with sleeves rolled up and large white apron protecting his expansive shirt front from flying suds will they find attractive slim barmaids serving eye and gin in tantalizing tiny teacups to tired truck drivers and weary business executives? Will there be official state bouncers in gold striped blue uniforms to toss objectionable patrons out into the gutter or will a kindly gray haired state matron show them the way to go home?

"The old 'saloon' must not return. It must be elevated until no one can recognize it except perhaps, by the smell. It is high time that a new and less shocking name were chosen. For it. We modestly offer the following suggestions, to either party: Chip Off the Old Plank, Republican Rest Room, Democratic Demijohn, (the younger generation won't know what that means); Ye Inside Inn, State Filling Station, Ye Olde Swimming Hole, All Inn, Dutch Treat Tavern, Cheerio Chateau, Depression Oasis, Prosperity Parlor, Chalk Line Cafe, New Era Speakeup, or, Personal Liberty Institute. Anyhow, we would remind you that 'the saloon' must not come back."

There has been much speculation as to who will pay back to the government all these billions of dollars appropriated for various purposes in the name of relief and restoration of business. It just came to light this week that the Reconstruction Finance Corp. will hold the state of Ohio responsible for the repayment of the $2,337,000 relief loan granted to Cleveland. The R. F. C. Saturday granted $2,307,000 for relief work in Cleveland for the remainder of the year. The application for the $2,337,000 direct relief must now be secured by the state. This will make $4,427,662 granted that has been loaned to Ohio cities for relief. We realize some method is necessary to provide for certain relief but has any one stopped to think who, when and how this money is to be repaid? With each of the billion dollar Hoover corporations is a long list of $10,000, $25,000 and $35,000 a year officials. The government budget is unbalanced more today than when congress was in session trying to find new taxes to balance it. Business has gone into a trance knowing that billion dollar expenditures in a wholesale manner and no plan made for repayment spell disaster.

The Court of Appeals on Monday sustained a Common Pleas Court decision which punctures the Ohio Classification tax law so far as distribution of the intangible tax is concerned. The suit was brought in Cincinnati and the result affects the entire state. Only fifteen counties in Ohio collected their quota of intangible taxes. Under the law those counties not collecting would share in the excess from those that did. The Courts have stopped payment of the excess and this means less for schools, counties and municipalities.

The real estate dealers, or realtors, as the professional term, have been holding a session in Dayton. David Lawrence, radio broadcaster on world events and editor of the United States Daily, was a speaker. World conditions were reviewed and particularly the billion dollar activities of this nation in the name of relief for banks, building and loans, railroads, insurance companies, but nothing for the individual depositor. Lawrence says much of our bank trouble is due to lax methods of inspection on the part of state bank departments in that far more state banks have closed than national banks. On the one hand the defenders of the administration are critical of the public being involved so deeply in debt on private affairs and yet urging the government and states to saddle more public debt on the people to cure the depression. It is a case of going into debt to pay a debt and this is something new in economic history.

The depression has brought one thing to the front that has never been given much consideration in the past and that through the closing of so many banks is the second mortgage situation. There is going to be a demand from financial interests at the next legislature, not only in Ohio, but other states, to outlaw the second mortgage. Hundreds of banks have carried these mortgages as assets that have had no value what ever and this has fooled the public as to the safety and soundness of the institutions. It is contended that with only one mortgage possible, the banks and building and loans would be better off and the property owner no worse off. Real estate development companies have eliminated much of the second mortgage by taking two mortgages in the sale of property, a first and second. Usually the real estate company held first and a finance company second, but the finance company and the realty company were both under the same control. It has not been so long ago that a certain candidate for high office boasted that his company never foreclosed a mortgage on a home. This was a clever campaign stunt and had an appeal, but the candidate never told his audience that the finance or investment company, he controlled held the second mortgage and foreclosed on hundreds of people that failed in their payments on their homes.

The political turmoil that exists in Columbus among Republican leaders has set old timers back in their chairs with amazement. It is said the Ingalls organization has started to set up independent organizations in "sixty counties in the state. Other Republican state candidates are floundering here and there, all as the result of the activity of Walter Brown. The candidates all know that Hoover has no chance in carrying Ohio and their fear is that the state ticket may go down with him. The Columbus Dispatch, that started out for Hoover, has softened and fears the same result to the state ticket and carried a story that Republicans were preparing to "trade Hoover with the Democrats for Ingalls. The Republican candidates on the state ticket are wanting to know what is to become of them?

One of our former friends from around Clinton dropped in Monday and in the course of conversation remarked that Candidate Marshall had addressed Antioch students backing the Hoover administration, farm relief and all. He says the students were so impressed with the speech that when the straw vote was taken they voted largely in the majority for the Socialist Candidate, Thomas.

William Hopping says new corn will start on the market around 16 cents a bushel. It is now only about 16c in Chicago. With freight and other deductions 16c seems to be the limit at this time. Monday in a radio political address a speaker praised the Hoover farm relief plan and stated that had it not been for the recent tariff law wheat would have been much lower. The speaker admitted that farm machinery the farmer had to buy had increased in price but only nine per cent. Machinery going up and wheat selling below cost of production is a hard problem to discuss and make the farmer believe he has more money now than he would have had. Ten minutes later over the same station came the "Farm and Home Hour", a farm program out of Washington. The markets were given and the comment was that wheat was about the same in this country but it was noted there was much activity in Canadian wheat with foreign buyers who were ignoring American wheat owing to our tariff laws. The point is "Who was right—the politician or the farm representative?"

There will be a moratorium for a few days on politics and the depression, while the whole nation takes in the World Series baseball games. The contest is between the New York Yankees and the Chicago Cubs, the former in the American League and the latter in the National League. The first game was in New York City on Wednesday with the Yankees winning by a score of 12 to 6.

The Public Service Magazine has a few blunt words about conditions in this country that are worth serious consideration:

AMERICA'S TROUBLE

What's the matter with this country?

Plain damfoolishness. We have spent our heads off. We have governed ourselves almost to death. We have taxed our property to the point of confiscation. We have paralyzed industry and thrown millions of men and women out of work by putting the government in business as their competitor. We are using untold millions of tax dollars to maintain a thousand crazy schemes of communism in city, state and nation—bureaucracy, paternalism.

We have poured billions of the people's money into European sinkholes to finance doles and war preparations and are now being repaid for our insanity by repudiations or threats of repudiations.

Nothing the matter with us but plain damfoolishness.

Why it takes so many millions for relief purposes may be explained by a news story out of Cleveland. A lot of twenty acres adjoining the city was plowed and the use donated by the owner to grow garden truck for the unemployed. The city through the relief agency employed labor to put out the crop, tend it and gather it. Watchmen were employed day and night and labor paid 35 cents an hour. There were bosses and time keepers and when the cost was figured up this week it was found the city had paid out $3872 to farm the twenty acres. If the twenty acres had been planted in potatoes and the same amount paid out it would have been necessary to get 218 bushel of potatoes per acre at 50c a bushel to break even. But think of the good that was accomplished in giving the bosses, timekeepers, watchmen, jobs at big salaries while the labor received 35c an hour for eight hours. We have not yet been weaned away from our World War habits of extravagance.

Savings banks, life and fire insurance companies, trust companies took an important step this week in naming a committee to investigate the railroad situation. Many of our leading roads have neared the line for receivership. Most of them are unable to pay not only interest on their bonds but dividends on their stocks. As the insurance and trust companies have large holdings in railroad stocks and bonds, their position is at stake. The roads have been granted large loans by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation which in itself is proper although there is much criticism among many people for the act. While the railroads probably have not kept pace with the times in meeting their new competition, and younger blood may be necessary to inject new life in the business, it is well that this new committee has been named to investigate as to procedure to keep the roads on their feet. Former President Calvin Coolidge heads the committee. Among the other members is Al Smith. The committee is non-partisan and has no authority from the government. It is a wise step. The insurance companies are evidently not asleep nor swallowing all the propaganda about business conditions. They are looking into the future.

The financial world was not given much encouragement this week when the Abitibi Power and Paper Co., New York and Toronto, was declared bankrupt. It was one of the largest news print companies in the country and stockholders will lose many millions of dollars. The stock was held largely in the East. There was a big when corporations wanted to be big but in these days the larger they are the more dangerous position they occupy. The Abitibi stock has long been listed on the big board but the common has been quoted as low as 5-9 and the preferred at 2-1-4. Such reports read like the closing of a bank.

SCHOOL NEWS

REV. HUTCHISON SPEAKS

On Monday, Rev. Hutchison, pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal Church, addressed the High School students in an unusual manner. He told the story of the Bible character, Onesimus, the run-away slave. After giving the setting, Rev. Hutchison concluded his remarks by reading the letter written by the Apostle Paul to Philemon.

Preceding this, Mrs. Edwards read a portion of Scripture. Rev. Hutchison led in prayer, and Lowell Northup accompanied by Eugene Corry, played a cornet solo.

NEW STUDENTS ENROLL

Two new students enrolled in the high school this week. The coming of these pupils brings the enrollment up to 246, which is the largest number ever enrolled in the local high school.

TIME SCHEDULE CHANGED

A new time schedule for the public school has been worked out and is now in effect. School will begin 5 minutes earlier in the morning. The noon hour has been reduced 25 minutes. This will make possible to dismiss school at 3:30 instead of 4:00 as in the past.

The new schedule may make it impossible for students living a considerable distance from school to go home for lunch. However it is hoped, that the advantages will offset any disadvantages. The new schedule is operating on a tentative basis at the present time. If it proves satisfactory this week, it will become a permanent part of the school organization.

C. H. S. Loses to Greenfield 39-0.

The football squad of C. H. S. met defeat at the hands of Greenfield, 39-0, last Friday afternoon, when the two teams met on the latter's field. The members of the Red and White team played well in spite of the fact that Greenfield's players greatly outweighed them. The opponents showed unusual ability to block punts and held the locals scoreless although they approached the goal several times through gains made by Smith, Cedarville's quarterback.

FAIRMONT HERE TODAY

The first home game of the football season will be played this afternoon when Fairmont meets C. H. S. on the local gridiron. Since there are so few home games it is hoped that a great many will take advantage of the opportunity to see the Red and White team in action today. The game will begin at 2:30. Plan to be here for the kick-off.

Admission 10c for all public school students; 25c for all others.

Do Fertilizers Pay?

From a survey conducted in Ohio, Indiana and Michigan 4541 Farmers answered—YES.

With wheat figured at 40c per bushel they all claimed it paid to use FERTILIZER as their yield was from 8 to 11 Bushels per acre more than where they did not Fertilize.

With the New Lower Prices on Fertilizers the extra yield and higher quality of grain will more than pay for Fertilizer used, even if Wheat should not advance in price and NO Farmer will sow a grain of Wheat this fall if he does not expect to get a higher price next harvest.

Lesson for October 2

THE CHRISTIAN'S DEVOTIONAL LIFE

GOLDEN TEXT—But grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory now and for ever.

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 5:15; Daniel 6:10; II Timothy 3:14-15.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Talking to God.

JUNIOR TOPIC—What Real Prayer Is.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Christian's Devotional Life.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Means of Christian Growth.

The Christian's growth is by means of his devotional life. It requires the symmetrical development of his understanding and heart. Bible study and prayer go hand in hand. The believer's affections need proper direction and exercise.

1. The Christian's Prayer Life (Matt. 6:1-15).

In Christ's teaching in this passage on prayer we note:

1. False prayer (vv. 5-7). This consists:

a. In one praying to be seen and heard of men (v. 5). Many prayers uttered in public are false, for the supreme consideration is what the people think rather than what God thinks. Men who thus pray get a reward but not from God.

b. In using vain repetitions (vv. 7, 8). This does not mean that we should ask but once for the thing desired, for we have examples of Christ and Paul praying three times for the same thing (Matt. 26:39-46; II Cor. 12:7, 8); but rather that the use of meaningless repetitions, repetitions of empty sentences be avoided.

2. True prayer (v. 9). Real prayer is communion of the child of God with his heavenly Father. Life for its fullest development needs both solitude and companionship. God, our Creator, knew what our natures require. Therefore, he commands both public and private prayer (Heb. 10:25; Matt. 6:6).

3. The model prayer (vv. 9-13). This was given in response to the disciples' request that the Lord would teach them to pray (Luke 11:1).

a. A right relationship—"Our Father" (v. 9). Only those who have become children of God by faith in Jesus Christ can pray aright.

b. A right attitude—"Hallowed be thy name" (v. 9, 10). When one realizes that he has been delivered from the power of darkness and translated into the kingdom of his dear Son (Col. 1:13) by being a child of God, he cannot help pouring out his soul in gratitude and praise, intensely longing for the kingdom, the righteous rule of Christ on the earth.

c. A right spirit (vv. 11-13). This spirit involves:

(1) Trust which looks to God for the supply of daily need. We are dependent upon him for our daily food. With all man's boasted progress he cannot make a harvest.

(2) The spirit of love which results in forgiveness of others. God will not listen to the prayers of one who has an unforgiving spirit.

(3) That of holiness which moves one to pray and not to be led into temptation and move him to long to be delivered from the Evil One.

(4) Regular prayer (Dan. 6:10). Though prohibited by royal decree from asking a petition from any god or man except the king, Daniel did not depart from his regular custom of prayer to God three times a day.

11. The Christian's Bible Study (II Tim. 3:14-17).

This scripture exhibits the value of the Holy Scriptures. Devotional life undirected by the Scriptures will develop in a wrong direction. The affections need to be disciplined through the understanding.

1. The Scriptures able to make one wise unto salvation (v. 15). Salvation is in Christ alone. It is secured through faith in his finished work on the cross. True wisdom leads to Christ crucified since "there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12), "and without shedding of blood is no remission" (Heb. 9:22).

2. The Scriptures discipline the life (vv. 16, 17). In the Scriptures doctrine is set forth, the standard of conduct which is absolutely needed. The only place, and God's standard of life is in his Holy Word. It not only exhibits the divine standard, but it reproves; that is, refutes error. The way to deal with error is not denunciation, but the positive presentation of truth. Then, too, it corrects; that is, sets straight many of the dislocations of personal and social conduct. The Word of God not only sets straight, but instructs in righteousness and equips for service.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

If you expect to get to heaven you must go in that direction.

Do not pray for easy lives; pray to be stronger men and women.

If I take care of my character, my reputation will take care of itself.

It is one thing to see the way you should go, and quite another to go the way you see.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

Sponsored by Cedarville W. C. T. U.

When we read that France has 40,000,000 gallons of wine ready to be sent to the United States at the first opportunity, and Germany has a vast supply of beer barrels ready to be exported to this country, we catch a glimpse of the deluge that will come if we open the door, even a crack. Every one of us must take great pains to see to it that when we vote for Representatives and Senators, we will cast a ballot for no man or woman or any party who is inclined even to be moist. The present faults will be corrected in time, but we want the corrections made by lovers of sobriety rather than lovers of drink.

We recall listening to "Billy Sunday's" "boozing sermon" years ago, and with his tremendous energy and vivid use of words he pictured a place as bad as one could imagine. A man in his thirties sat next to us, and listened intently. He was well dressed and good looking. When the preacher finished having held 20,000 people spell-bound for more than an hour, we remarked to our neighbor, "That was a terrific arraignment." He started us by saying, "I am a bartender in one of the big saloons in this city; I know more than Mr. Sunday does, and I tell you it is ten times worse than all he said." It was astonishing testimony.

When Theodore Roosevelt was President he said: "The American people must defeat the liquor traffic or the liquor traffic will defeat the American people." The would-be President Roosevelt wants the liquor business restored to power today.

The wets today are putting forth every effort to capture the youth of our nation and enlist them in the anti-prohibition movement. This is the chief aim of the wet "Crusaders." You will remember the brewers and old saloon-keepers endeavored to capture the young and create an appetite for strong drink. Parents, defend prohibition and protect your sons and daughters.

NO WET LANDSLIDE SAYS ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE HEAD

F. Scott McBride, head of the Anti Saloon League, gives out a statement that there will be "no wet landslide" and that the next congress will neither repeal nor modify the 18th amendment.

Canon William Sheaf Chase of the International Reform Federation has issued a sarcastic comment upon the activities of Dr. Daniel Poling, head of the Allied Forces for Prohibition, who is pledged to work for the reelection of President Hoover. Chase says Poling is "dividing the dry forces."

Chase says the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union refused to endorse either the Republican or the Democratic party or either of its candidates, and that the Anti Saloon League did the same.

What the dries are interested in is "Who is paying for the airplane that Poling is using to travel 25,000 miles to espouse the cause of a political candidate that advocates a change in the eighteenth amendment?"

SHORT CHANGE RACKET ON LOCAL BUSINESS MAN

Clarence L. McGuinn, local coal and feed dealer, was short-changed out of $19.60 Monday by two strangers. "One man bought a bushel of oats at 40c and gave a $20 bill and was given $19.60 in change. The second man purchased a block of salt at 40c and gave a $10 bill and received $9.60 change. Both left and later the first man returned and asked McGuinn to return his $20 bill so that he could get rid of the ten one dollar bills received in change. Frank Engle was in the McGuinn place at the time and suggested to McGuinn that he was out $10 in the deal. Both men had entered their automobile and started away when the discovery was made. The license number was 783,010 and had been issued at Youngstown. Marshal McLean was notified and communicated with Jamestown when it was learned two strangers had entered the Adams-Thuma Lumber office and asked for change for a $20 bill but at the time two traveling salesmen entered and the first two left hurriedly. The lumber office had been burglarized a few nights previous.
